The Nevil Shed Second Chance Children's Charity Welcomes Nevil Shed and the 1966 Texas Western Hall of Famers.

Q&A With Nevil Shed and Original Starting Team Members Followed by Autograph
Session

Who:

Nevil Shed and the "Nevil Shed Second Chance Children's Charity" including team members from the original 1966 Texas Western NCAA Championship Basketball Team.

What:

In 1966, the underdog Texas western basketball team beat the highly favored University of Kentucky team in a game that changed the world of college basketball forever. It was the first time in NCAA history that the starting line-up included five African Americans men, and their drive to become champions changed history. The story of the team was recently featured in the motion picture "Glory Road", featuring Josh Lucas as the passionately devoted Coach Don Haskins.

The team is chosen to be enshrined into the Nesmith basketball Hall of Fame. Enshrinement and Induction will take place September 6, 2007 in Springfield, Massachusetts.

Nevil Shed one of the starting team members; will be hosting a hall of fame enshrinement party which will launch The Nevil Shed Second Chance Children's Charity.
